ASB Update

Gus Mitchell

ASB Rally is Friday next week. Heather will meet with Gus about Unity Festival at 7:30am in room 62. Last Fridays Food Fair went well. The deadline for artists to participate in the murals project in 30’s wing and quad is March 17, 2022. This Friday’s rally is Marvel vs DC, Villains vs Hero’s. Talent Show is March 25th with auditions this Thursday. Suggestion made for top performers to participate in Unity Festival entertainment.

Principal’s Report

Mr. McMeekin

Mr. McMeekin discussed staffing update: Two teachers are retiring, two more are resigning so 4 new teachers are needed. Rowina the Office Manager is taking a District Office position and still looking for a good fit for our office so will repost position. Will also post for permanent Campus Monitor. There are no layoffs planned though the budget does not support the current staffing. Testing: 166 of 193 Juniors took the SAT test though colleges no longer require it for acceptance. AP testing is the first two weeks of May and we’ll need parents to assist in proctoring during the school day. SBAC Juniors, Math and ELA. Seniors, Science. School Site Council Update: Create staff for parent engagement strategies. Parent flyer survey regarding racist graffiti. Student group can develop and create Equity Committee. Mask recommendation is through April 18th. Prom is June 4th at 7pm and graduation is at Sutter Health Park, June 15th at 6:30pm. School Listening Circles were 2 meetings per day and the most attended were 5 parents. Refer conversation topic ideas to Mr. McMeekin.

---

Fundraising and Event Updates

Heather Pettit

Date, location and amusement activities have been set for family after school event. Volunteers are needed for food and auction. ASB will help, band will play, art, entertainment etc. May is month of giving for cash donations. Unity Festival is celebration of West Campus students and their families. Will ask Principal if can send invitation to Junior High feeder schools.
