ASB Update

Gus Mitchell

The Freshman/Homecoming Dance will be November 5th. The Halloween Carnival is yet to be determined. Danielle asked if we could get updates on upcoming events and fundraisers so can help advertise as with the Chipotle fundraiser.

Principal's Report

Mr. McMeekin

Mr. McMeekin was not in attendance.

Fundraising and Event Updates

Heather Pettit

Heather was unable to attend but plans to meet with Danielle to discuss the March 26th Gala fundraiser. We are still looking for ideas for decorations, theme etc. Possible class competition for whoever decorates their designated area the best with funds going to class winner.

Communications

Jamie Poulton

Jaime stressed the importance of getting information to her regarding fundraisers to support and send out communication to members. Seniors Chipotle fundraiser this Wednesday but few knew. Can support clubs, events, band, drama; class representatives should let us know so can promote and support. Molly and Sara Beth spoke of our Debate Team doing well. Participated and placed in Sac Urban Debate League and coaches a couple tournaments. New Debators Ben and Leo made it to JV finals in Long Beach, CA. Placed 18 out of 80 so big accomplishment. There are six more tournaments this school year; Wednesday is their 4th zoom tournament.

New Business and Announcements

Danielle Seperas

Grad Night will start Thursday, June 16th at Disneyland, Santa Monica Beach and Universal Studios. Shawna asked the Foundation for help with the cost as some Seniors had to get jobs to afford the trip and may be a financial burden for some. Maybe a chocolate fundraiser?

Meeting Adjourned at 6.53 p.m.
