ASB Update

Gus Mitchell

Food Fair and Blood Drive are this Friday the 14th. Make appointment for the blood drive and may miss 3rd or 5th period. Parent consent form in the office if under 18. Food is sold at Food Fair to raise money for 40 clubs on campus. Food has already been purchased so hopefully will not be canceled. Mental Health Awareness week is January 8-21st. Covid safe Pancake breakfast for students the day after finals and 5-7 volunteers are needed. Gus will be there at 6am on the 28th with griddles and warmers from the cafeteria. Pancake mix, syrup, breakfast food and fruit donations are needed. Goal is to serve 1,500 pancakes. Two lines of griddles are set up with cooks in the middle and heating trays at the end. Hopefully will not be canceled as is just like lunch time with students eating in groups. Pep rally is also January 28th, the last day of semester. Gus stated he is always open to emails for any questions or concerns and ASB does have a budget for the breakfast. Monica Hollar put in chat that she just got an email from SCUSD stating all fieldtrips, rallies and food fairs are cancelled by Health Services.
