Principal’s Report

Dr. Versher

Dr. Versher spoke of personal, racist, hate speech against her, specifically saying she’d been called [redacted] and [redacted]. She stated her home address has become public and she needs to move her children to a hotel as she feels threatened. She expressed concern that Mr. McMeekin instructed her to attend this meeting though she did not want to and that he refused to address her concerns over what happened to her today. Heather tried consoling her saying she will meet with her at school tomorrow saying we were just discussing celebrating our diversity, but Dr. Versher said she was not open to a conversation and wanted the Superintendent and Principal to address this issue.

Fundraising and Event Updates

Heather Pettit

Heather discussed renaming the Gala Fundraiser in March to ‘Taste of the World’ to celebrate our amazing West Campus multicultural and diverse community. Encourage all parents to come and details should be on the website by Thanksgiving.

Communications

Jamie Poulton

Jamie reminded all of the Foundation’s monthly newsletter for all teachers, staff, clubs etc. who would like announcements to get out. The Senior Class Fundraiser support has been updated in the newsletter. CSF has a fundraiser this Wednesday at Panda Express. Mental Health Awareness week, canned food drive has been extended and Gala Fundraiser are all in newsletter. We need parent involvement and support for the Gala and all are invited to attend our first meeting on November 30th, Sac Town Brew on 60th St from 5:15pm – 6:30pm.

New Business and Announcements

Danielle Seperas

Next meeting is December 13th and parents, feel free to call or email Board anytime.

Meeting Adjourned at 6.57 p.m.
